River And Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12,-The river and harbor bill has been completed by the committee and will be reported to the house early this week. It appropriates in round numbers $12,000,000.

The amount appropriated for various improvements have been, in general, one-third of the amount estimated by the chief of engineers as the sum which could be profitably expended on the work during the first year. This rule, however, has been departed from in many cases where circumstances required it, The exact amounts appropriated for special localities cannot be given, but approximate estimates include the following: Improving the Missouri river, $375,000; Columbia river, Oregon, $250,000; Oakland harbor, California, $137,000; Yaquina bay, $1000,000; Coos bay, Or., $05,000; Humboldt, $65,000.

Long and Short Haul,

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.-The interstate commerce commission have never before unearthed as much crookedness as is revealed by the present investigation. It appears that all roads have been employing scalpers to sell their through tickets much below regular rates, thus permitting roads to quote highest proportioning rates for short distances, The commission has decided that night at Turner, on his way home to this must be stopped. It is said they will render a decision to the effect that roads which cut rates through Heavy Storm.

ASBURY PARK, N. Y., Dec. 11 .-Heavy storms are raging and the wind is blowing on the shore. The crews of the life saving stations are patrolling the beach. It is thought considerable damage will be done at high tide this after noon. A large quantity of wreckage came ashore this morning, supposed to be from the wreck of some vessel, News And Notes of a General Interest to the Westerner.

The Pacific Coast Express company began business yesterday.

Corvallis has a new town clock in the court house. James Glenson and P. A. Marquam, Jr., of Portland are new notaries public.

Magdaline Rothfos is a new arrival at the insane asylum. She is from Portland.

The Oak Grove cemetery association of Mt. Hood yesterday filed articles of incorporation. Tillamook is troubled with intermittent sidewalks and citizens say they are worse than none at all. The Salvation Army at Petulama, Cal., has won a victory. They have obtained permission to parade the streets, and parties molesting them will be arrested.

The Yaquina Bay which went aground at Yaquina Sunday night, is still resting on the bar, but there are strong hopes of getting her off tomorrow. The examination of her bottom shows that she is not materially injured. Divers with wrecking appliances have been sent from San Francisco to assist in saving the stamer.

Late dispatches indicate that conditions are favorable for getting the stranded Yaquina Bay affort. It has been ascertained that she is not didn't let it stand very long, giving leaking and it is thought has no holes in her bottom. She is lying a sound and was in constant fear of track for some distance, causing Mr. in a sheltered position. New hawsers, wrecking apparatus, etc., have been secured, and with the aid of the three tugs on the bay a united effort will be made to get the vessel afloat.
